PORTS OF CALL

Topolobampo, Mexico

A laid-back village with stunning views, fresh seafood, and a delightful tropical climate, Topolobampo is best-known as a gateway to the mansion of Don Diego, or “El Zorro,” and spectacular Copper Canyon, reached by a scenic train ride.

La Paz, Mexico

Nestled amid stark desert landscapes, ancient laurel trees, and date palms, La Paz, the capital of the state of Baja California Sur, beckons with pristine bays and a lively palm-fringed boardwalk. Just offshore, the deserted island of Espíritu Santo, once a hiding spot for pirates, is now a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

Mazatlán, Mexico

Sprawling sandy beaches, abundant boutiques and jewelry shops, and a newly restored old quarter make Mazatlán a popular tourist destination on Mexico’s west coast. Spotted with multicolored neoclassical buildings and laced with cobbled streets, the historic quarter draws visitors with its tree-lined Plaza Mechado and 19th-century Teatro Ángela Peralta.

Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

One of Mexico’s most sophisticated and popular resort destinations, Puerto Vallarta stretches around a sparkling bay backed by lush mountains. Its paradise setting is perfect for lazing on golden beaches, taking in sunsets on the Malecón, enjoying whale-watching excursions, exploring stylish galleries and boutiques, or admiring botanical gardens.

Cabo San Lucas, Mexico

One of Mexico’s premier resort towns, Cabo San Lucas rests at the tip of the Baja Peninsula, where the Pacific Ocean meets the Sea of Cortez. Clear aquamarine seas, picture-perfect beaches, and dramatic rock formations provide a tranquil atmosphere, while an explosion of trendy restaurants, chic boutiques, and beachfront hotels lends an energetic, modern flavor to this natural paradise.

San Diego, California

California’s second-largest city, San Diego boasts near-perfect weather, a beautiful beach-hugging coastline, and a fascinating Spanish heritage. Undoubtedly, its star attraction is Balboa Park, the nation’s largest urban cultural park, featuring beautifully manicured gardens, hiking trails, 15 museums, and the famous San Diego Zoo.
